

Overview for Accelerated Coach Accreditation

Taylor Clarke has worked closely with the Association of Coaching (AC) to ensure that we:

- Maximise alignment between AC Accredited Coach Training Programmes and the requirements for Individual AC Coach Accreditation
- Reduce time spent by Applicants submitting their AC Accreditation applications through minimising duplication of written requirements
- Maintain the rigour and robustness of the AC Coach Accreditation Scheme

What you need to do

- Review the sections of the application that you will need to complete to support your submission.
- Upload all required evidence through the Association for Coaching website
- For all levels (excluding Foundation Level) please contact the Accreditation Office on accreditationoffice@associationforcoaching.com to request your two ethical dilemma questions before completing your application.

Overview of Accelerated Accreditation Application with Taylor Clarke

The sections of the AC Coach Accreditation Application Form which are either pre-populated, or were submitted during training or completed since are identified, and details are in the table below:

Sections that will be pre-populated by AC (verified through Coach Training Programme Accreditation)

Sections that need to be completed by Applicant

* Sections where documents are to be completed and attached for verification by Association of Coaching. These may already have been submitted as part of the Taylor Clarke Programme

For details of what will be assessed in the additional evidence please refer to the Applicant Guide from the Association of Coaching
